JONES TUBB
Head Coach

Head Coach Jones Tubb grew up expecting to be a coach and entered the University of Alabama to pursue a degree in physical education. But being a product of the Depression, he found coaching jobs to be at a premium and changed his course of study to business, later owning a furniture business and a sporting goods business. Coach Tubb spent 38 months in the Air Force, 33 of which were in Europe, and during that time he was selected an Air Force All-Star of the European Theater. Upon returning to Tuscaloosa, he became involved in youth baseball, directing for 13 years a YMCA Little League and Dixie Majors program of 68 teams. He became involved in the American Legion Baseball program in 1965, and along with Jerry Belk coached the only local Legion teams to date to go to the World Series, winning the Championship in 1967. During 13 years of American Legion coaching, Coach Tubb saw 47 of his players go on to junior or senior college play. Coach Tubb returned to coaching full-time in 1980 after undergoing serious surgery and selling his stores. He was an assistant for 5 years at the University of Alabama before coming to Shelton to assist former coach Bobby Sprowl. Coach Tubb is in his third year as head coach at Shelton during which his teams have participated in post-season play each year. Supporting him in his avid devotion to coaching is his wife, the former Geraldine Hewett. The Tubbs have a son, Glynn, and a daughter, Marilyn.

B.J. BROWN
Assistant Coach

Coach B.J. Brown played college baseball at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas where he was a 4-year starter at 3rd base. He was an AIC All-Star and received All-Conference Honorable Mention. After earning his master's degree, Coach Brown spent '85-'86 at Henderson State University coaching defense and hitting, and recruiting. The next year, he was at the University of Alabama working with pitching, outfielders, and recruiting. This is Coach Brown's third year with Shelton State's pitchers, and his biggest supporter is his wife Camille. His goal as a coach is to build better baseball players than when they arrived so that they will be prepared to perform on the next level. His personal commitment to excellence inspires the same in his players.

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Thomas E. Umphrey
President

Dear Parents and Baseball Fans:

We at Shelton State Community College are proud of the accomplishments of our baseball team. Shelton State has been involved in post season play every year except our very first. Two of those teams finished as the runner up in the state tournament. I am confident that with Coach Jones Tubb at the helm that this year's team could go all the way, with the state championship and onward to the national tournament. You will find that our roster is well represented by the exceptional talent developed in the West Alabama area. As the community's college, we hope to continue to lead this area in education and baseball. Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Dr. Thomas E. Umphrey
